Aura 50

The Osprey Atmos and Aura, for men and women respectively, are made for hiking and extended trips. With an updated Air-Speed suspension the packs are designed to be customized for fit with an adjustable hipbelt, torso and interchangeable harnesses. The packs tout trail convenient features, such as the dual ice axe loops and main compartment with a hydration sleeve. The Atmos and Aura 50 retail for $199 and the Atmos and Aura 65 retail for $239.

Kestrel 58

The Kestrel is designed to be versatile, light, clean and functional. It is updated with a sleek look, while holding true to its classic lines. The Kestrel features stretch woven front and side pockets as well as hipbelt pockets as well as additional loops for ice axes and an integrated raincover. The top-loading Kestrel 58 also has dual vertical zippered side pockets and an under-lid zippered mesh pocket as well as removable sleeping bag straps and a zippered sleeping bag compartment. It is also available in 28, 32, 38, 48 and 68 L options. The Kestrel 58 retails for $179.
