CAMPING & HIKING

Whether you plan to do some light hiking or get intense with a several-day excursion, these gadgets will keep you comfortable, safe and plugged in — even when you're many miles from civilization.

BACK SAVER

6 Osprey Atmos and Aura

Going backpacking? Osprey has you covered with its male and female SS12 Atmos and Aura hiking backpacks. The featured AirSpeed suspension features an arched Lightwire Alloy frame for easy weight transfer, and the mesh panel facilitates ventilation. Plus, you can customize your fit with an adjustable torso length, interchangeable harnesses and an adjustable hip belt fit, so you're comfortable on the trail.
