Nine Mountain Bike Essentials

Winter is over, ski resorts have closed for the season, the ice is off the lake—that can mean only one thing. Time to get your mountain bike on. Whatever your style—enduro, XC, downhill, beginner, or seasoned shredder, here are some essentials to keep you riding happy.

2. Osprey Raven 6 hydration pack ($110): You need somewhere to store an extra layer, water, snacks, your phone, tools, and first aid kit (for those long XC adventures) while out your ride. I find the 6L-10L capacity hydration packs are the perfect size for your daily mountain bike rides.
