AVALANCHE AIRBAGS HAVE ARRIVED –GRAYSON SCHAFFER

Which one is right for you? If you ski close to home, it's hard to beat the ABS system for the sheer number of designs available. Companies like Deuter, Jones, Osprey, and Salomon all use ABS in their avy packs, many of which allow you to convert them to conventional backpacks via removable panels. If you travel, a compressed-air pack requires only a quick stop at a dive shop to have your canister filled before hitting the mountains. And there's much to like
