The Best Rolling Suitcases You Can Buy

If you're looking to invest in new luggage, consider where you're most often headed. Are you an extreme hiker headed to scale your next peak, or typically off to Silicon Valley to pitch your next start-up? The bag you bring should suit your needs, and these days, there's a sophisticated and sturdy option for everyone. Here are high-tech rolling suitcases for serious

One of the most thoughtfully designed pieces here, the light, 75-liter Contrail works hard to be a traveler's total package, featuring such smart, removable built-ins as a two-sided organizer and a hang-up laundry bag. The build is tough, thanks in part to skid plates and padded grab handles. [$340; amazon.com]
