Osprey Packs, Inc. is expanding their successful line of cycling packs for Spring 2012 with the addition of two new series: Zealot and Syncro.

Cycling/Hiking: Combining advanced materials and their Airspeed™ suspension, the Syncro is streamlined hydration packs designed for cyclists and hikers who value lightweight and ventilation.

Hydration Specific/All Mountain: Mountain bikers who love the descent need a hydration pack that can hold all their gear. The Zealot series carries armor, tools and full-face helmets securely and comfortably.
