Holiday Gift Ideas for Travel & Outdoor Lovers, Part 1

Written by The Adventure Post Editors on Nov. 9, 2011

Hard to believe, but yes, folks, the holiday season is fast approaching. We know some of you have started your gift lists (um, for others, not yourself) and even your shopping, while others will wait 'til the last darn second to get those much-needed gifts for family and friends.

The Adventure Post crew is making the shopping expedition a bit easier by offering a variety of goodies, from stocking stuffers to presents, for travel and outdoor adventurers that have caught our attention – and we wouldn't mind seeing under the tree. (Santa, are you listening?)

And, it doesn't stop here: Don't miss Part 2 of our holiday gift ideas, running Wednesday, Nov. 16, 2011.

Osprey Shuttle 22" Wheeled Luggage

The durable 40-liter shuttle bag from Osprey has an aluminum frame, high-impact plastic base and padded foam sidewalls, while its large polyurethane wheels tackle bumpy terrain. A zipper runs the length of the bag for side access, plus there's a top pocket for small items, and a low-profile magazine pocket on the back panel. Measuring 23.5 x 15 x 11 inches, it weighs 5 pounds, 15 ounces. Retail price: $219
