Best Organizer: The luggage-within-luggage concept is a little counterintuitive, but Osprey's FlightLocker ($49; ospreypacks.com) really is a space saver, with dedicated compartments for pants, shoes, shirts, and intimates. It's a bit heavy (1.3 lbs), but most of that weight comes from the stiff, padded center frame—Osprey's way of keeping everything crisp looking on arrival.

Best iPad Case: G-Form's Xtreme ($80; g-form.com) looks like body armor—the company makes that, too—but it's built from a proprietary material that stiffens on impact. If you're always moving your tablet from one bag to another, it's peace of mind for your most precious gadget. —B.P.
