

USA Today - GO ESCAPE

Winter 2014

Roll Like a Jetsetter

Featuring: Contrail 28"

Circulation: 100,000

Roll Like a Jetsetter

From coast to coast, here's what to tote

BY ALISSON EITNER

You may be stressed to pack for a long haul, but if the suitcase you're using has as many details as your favorite, you'll make your journey a lot easier. Here are the best of bags for your next getaway.

Contrail
If you're dying for a Caribbean breeze, go for the Osprey Contrail 28 inch. Its removable laundry bag has a separate compartment for your wet bikinis, and the external zip-top pocket was designed to keep liquids like sunscreen away from your floppy hat and shorts. $339

Bonobos
Yoga mat, anyone? The Aloha Yoga tote lets you carry your mat on top of your bag, and it has an internal pocket for your wet bikini, and the external zip-top pocket was designed to keep liquids like sunscreen away from your floppy hat and shorts. $119

New York City
If you "Travel" New York, invest in a designer piece with timeless appeal like the new Zangni $5 by Louis Vuitton. With four main sections of travel, it's perfect for navigating New York's crowded airports and sidewalks. Plus, it just looks fabulous. $1,400

Stromboli
If you're all about Atlanta, opt for the Patagonia M.C. Bag 45L. Made with recycled fabric, the roll-sided carry-on converts to a backpack and can hold nearly a week's worth of clothes. After you're done with the Mountains, use the internal divider to separate your sweaty clothes from your clean ones. $139

Chicago
Is Chi-Town your chosen? Go for the Travelpro Platinum Magna 21-inch, with eight spinner wheels that won't roll from left to right as you breeze down the Magnificent Mile. It's also lightweight, which means you can buy more souvenirs without breaking your arm. $220

Caribbean

If you're dying for a Caribbean breeze, go for the Osprey Contrail 28-inch. Its removable laundry bag has a separate compartment for your wet bikinis, and the external zip-top pocket was designed to keep liquids like sunscreen away from your floppy hat and shorts. $339

