HELMIX CHAIR ONE
Think you're too much of a purist to haul a camp chair into the backcountry? Think again. The new Helmix, with ultralight poles and a mesh seat, packs down small, weighs 30 ounces, and sets up in a flash. You may never sit on a log again. $100; helmix.com.

Backpackers Luke Pennech and Tommy Marwin put a premium on lightweight gear and sustainable footwear.
