10 Water Bottles That Actually Work While You're Exercising

Because H2O should never get in the way of your workout

Fiddling around with a water bottle while you exercise can get super-annoying. That's why we went searching for some of the most workout-friendly bottles out there. Think of the following 12 as your new, dependable workout buddies—they're easy to carry and durable, and they blow your old water bottle out of the water.

Serious Storage

Stash your bottle—plus your keys and cash—during endurance training. The sling even has a touchscreen pocket for your phone.
