Bike to Work Week 2015: The pack

May 11th through May 15th is National Bike to Work Week 2015. It is an opportunity to celebrate the power of the bicycle, the many benefits it provides, the packs that make bike commuting fun and, best of all, a chance to win a CLIF Bar prize pack!

You have to carry your clothes and grooming essentials so the pack you choose has to be comfortable, it has to be functional and it has to be big enough to hold your clothes and grooming essentials without bogging you down.

Osprey Momentum ($129 - $149)

For packs, I love the Osprey Momentum ($129 - $149). This is an Osprey product so there's no question on its comfort or functionality.

It has an integrated rain jacket (for the pack, not you), a helmet clip and soft zippered pocket on the shoulder strap to allow for easy access to your phone.

You'll also have a Smartphone pocket conveniently located on the shoulder strap, large, glove-friendly zipper pulls, padded laptop compartment, LidLock™ helmet clip, blinkie light attachment and dual compression straps.

Genius incarnate at its finest.

Osprey Spin 32 ($150)

Another great pack from Osprey making the lineup is the Spin 32 ($150). It comes in two sizes and the reason I like this pack is because it has zippered side pockets that you can actually access without completely taking the pack off.
